HUERTA TRIES TO RAISE MORE COIN

$801,000 Pesos, Gold, Needed the First of December.

FOR THE NATIONAL RAILWAY

General Francisco Villa Has Begun Movement to Attack the Federals at Chihuahua—1,000 Leave Juarez.

Mexico City, Nov. 28.—President Huerta summoned the managers of the Bank of London and Mexico and the National Bank before him this afternoon and explained to them the necessity for their financial assistance to meet the obligation of the National railways on December 1st. Interest payments of the railways, due December 1st aggregate 801,000 pesos gold. It was to raise this amount and the interest payments maturing January 1st that E. N. Brown, president of the National railways, went to New York recently.

The gross earnings of the railways since December, 1912, show a decrease of practically 15,000,000 pesos gold. Losses on fixed charges and on property, track and equipment aggregate many millions additional.

Failure to meet the payments in December would, it is claimed, give the right of foreclosure, but as such action would have to be brought in a Mexican court, because the company is a Mexican corporation, the difficulties to be encountered are obvious.

Danger of Starvation.

Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 28.—Imminent danger of starvation at Victorria, capital of the Mexican State of Tamaulipas, has caused all remaining Americans in that vicinity, five families and several single persons to decide to leave for the United States. An American chauffeur, returning from Victoria today, said that the Americans were to start for Matamoras and Brownsville in a wagon train today.

Victoria is cut off from all points and there is no chance to obtain provisions. The chauffeur today said that in capturing Victoria November 19th the Constitutionalists burned the State capitol and razed the penitentiary after liberating all the prisoners, but destroyed no other property in the city deliberately.

No News in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Secretary Bryan said tonight that no official communication had been received here from Rear Admiral Fletcher or John Lind, the special American envoy to Mexico, relating to conditions in the oil fields near Tampico. The fact that no report had been received was regarded as assurance that there was no immediate cause for alarm.

When President Wilson left Washington for New York at noon, Secretary Bryan remained to receive official dispatches. The only developments concerned the activity of the rebel forces reported to be advancing toward Tampico from Victoria.

Secretary Daniels today issued an order directing the fourth division of the Atlantic fleet now in the Mediterranean, to proceed to the East coast of Mexico, via Guantanamo. The ships to make the trip are the Connecticut, Kansas and Ohio, ordered to replace the Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire now in Mexican waters. The division will leave the Mediterranean December 1st and should arrive off Vera Cruz about two weeks later. Rear Admiral Badged, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, will direct this maneuver.

To Attack Federals.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 28.—The movement of General Francisco Villa's troops to the south to attack the Federals' stronghold at Chihuahua, was begun today when nearly 1,000 men under General Rosalio Hernandez departed from Juarez. More troops probably will leave ofr the south tomorrow.

Women and Children Killed.

Mexico City, Nov. 28.—It is reported after dynamiting a train in the Saltillo yesterday the rebels attacked the soldiers, who numbered about 100 and 30 or 40 women and children belonging to the soldiers, killing every one of them. This report has not been confirmed.

The chamber of deputies approved tonight the committee report on the 20,000,000 pesos interiar bond issue, asked for by the late President Madero which was not acted upon by his Congress. It is said that certain foreign governments are willing to accept payment of their indemnities in these bonds.

Gen. Porfirio Diaz, the ex-President, may be called upon for active service at any time. Several months ago he was invited by President Huerta to return to the army. He accepted and has been placed on the list of available unassigned generals.

SCHOONER IN ICE.

Literally Crushed to Pieces—Crew Safe on Shore.

Nome, Alaska, Nov. 28. — The power schooner Mary Sachs, one of the boats of Stefanson's Canadian Arctic exploration expedition, has been wrecked in the ice off the Arctic coast of Alaska. News of the loss of the Mary Sachs was received today in a letter from Peter Barnard, captain or the vessel.

The ice crushed the vessel into small bits and all the provisions and scientific instruments aboard were lost.

The letter gives no details of the mishap. As nothing is said of any inquiry to the men on the Mary Sachs it is believed all are safe. They easily could make their way over the ice and obtain shelter from natives.

No word was received concerning Stefenson's other vessel, the Karluk, and the Alaska.

As Finley's Body Borne Into Church.

Funeral of Southern Railway President in Washington Yesterday Attended by Many Railroad Men and Friends.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Funeral services for the late William Wilson Finley, president of the Southern Railway system, were held here this morning in St. John's Episcopal church, attended by many government officials and his former associates in the commercial and transportation world.

As the body was carried into the church just before 11 o'clock, all activities over the Southern Railway's 7,000 miles of road ceased for five minutes. Employes everywhere laid down their work, trains everywhere came to a standstill and in shops machinery ceased to turn.

Officials and employes at headquarters of the company assembled in front of the general offices on Pennsylvania avenue and marched to the church in a drizzling rain. The body was borne by six negro porters, veterans in the employ of the railroad company. The honorary pall-bearers were:

Col. A. B. Andrews, George F. Baker, James J. Hill, Charles Steele, Fairfax Harrison, E. H. Gary, Adrian Iselin, Jr., George F. Baker, Jr., Francis Lynde Stetson, Alexander P. Humphrey, Alfred P. Thom, J. M. Culp, T. C. Powell, Henry B. Spencer, E. H. Coapman, R. D. Lankford, R. V. Taylor, John B. Munson, H. C. Atsley, A. H. Plant, A. C. Downing and Leonard M. Levering.

Expressions of sympathy with the family and sentiments of appreciation of Mr. Finley's work in the present day development of the South, a movement in which he was a commanding figure, have come in large number not only from his associates in the transportation world, but from commercial and trade organizations throughout the States the railroad system traverses.

Among them were telegrams from organizations in Meridian, Miss., and Norfolk, Va., the Greater Western North Carolina Association; Winston-Salem Board of Trade; the Chambers of Commerce at Birmingham, Ala.; Chattanooga, Tenn.; Greenville, S. C., and Macon, Ga., and the Industrial League of Claremont, Va.

Burial was in Oak Hill cemetery in this city.

A meeting of the directors of the Southern Railway will be held before December 12th to consider a successor to Mr. Finley. It has been suggested that a selection may be delayed because of the situation arising from the recent death of President T. M. Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, a competitor of the Southern. Thomas C. Powell, vice president of the Southern Railway, and of the Queen & Crescent; Fairfax Harrison, president of the Monon Route, and a former vice president of the Southern, and E. H. Coapman, vice president and general manager of the Southern, are among several whose names are said to be under consideration.

Representatives and employes of the passenger traffic department came to attend the funeral from practically all of the offices of the company throughout the country, attended church in a body and marched to the cemetery where two lines were formed through which the funeral cortege passed.

TO CONNECT WITH SEABOARD

Charleston Northern Will Immediately Build Link to Connect With the N. & S. C. For Hamlet.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

New York, Nov 28.—The Charleston Northern Railway, which was reincorporated in South Carolina, will immediately build from Charleston to Andrews, S. C., a distance of 57 miles, to connect with the North and South Carolina Railroad which now connects with the Seaboard Air Line at Hamlet, N. C., and McBee, S. C.

The Seaboard holds an option on the North and South Carolina Railroad and is expected to exercise this when the new road is completed. It is not improbable that the North and South Carolina, the South Carolina Western and the new Charleston Northern will be consolidated into the Charleston, Seaboard and Western Railroad, and will be taken over by the Seaboard Air Line.

The new route to be formed by the three roads will be 95 per cent. air line construction with minimum grades of only five-tenths of one per cent. It is reported that the roads eventually will be extended from Charleston to Savannah, where connection will be made with the Seaboard Air Line's track entering that city.

DEFENSE WITNESSES HEARD

In Trial of Imperial Tobacco Co., in Kentucky.

Morganfield, Ky., Nov. 28.—Several tobacco growers gave testimony favorable to the defense today in the trial of the Imperial Tobacco Co., of England, which is charged with conspiracy to violate Kentucky anti-trust laws.

These growers testified that the prices paid by the defendant company to the planters had been reasonable. Several independent buyers of tobacco testified that they had purchased tobacco of the farmers and sold it to the Imperial company at a profit. They also contradicted testimony of farmers who were witnesses for the commonwealth as to the cost of tobacco production. They stated that labor-saving machinery has enabled the farmers to produce tobacco for approximately five dollars per hundred pounds.

Witnesses for the prosecution had testified that the cost of production ranged from $8 to $12 a hundred.

MAYOR SHANK HAS RESIGNED OFFICE

Rather Than Face Threatened Impeachment Trial.

FOUGHT HIGH COST OF LIVING

Famous for His Way of Handling Whiskey Dealers—Resignation Result of Labor Troubles in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Nov. 28.—Rather than face impeachment proceedings Samuel Lewis Shank resigned as mayor of Indianapolis this afternoon and was automatically succeeded by Harry R. Wallace, city controller.

A committee of business men had prepared to institute impeachment proceedings in case of further labor trouble in the city, and when the mayor was told that a strike of teamsters was imminent, he sent in his resignation.

"I feel that I did everything possible to be fair to both sides during the recent street car strike," said Mayor Shank in announcing his resignation, "but after the criticism that has been heaped on me, by the safety board of the chamber of commerce, I feel that I probably could not do my duty to the public on account of the bitter feeling that has grown out of the lafor controversy."

Mayor Wallace said the police situation is so critical that he will take personal charge of the department for a time. The new mayor has been prominent in Republican politics and has served one term as co-auditor.

Very Novel Figure.

Shank probably is the most novel figure that ever occupied the mayor's office in Indianapolis. His handling of the saloon problem early in his administration attracted much attention. Saloon keepers who violated the law were taken before the mayor and in many instances their licenses were suspended for periods varying from a few hours to 60 days. One saloon keeper's license was suspended until he could show the mayor a certificate signed by a minister that he had attended church.

Shank also gained Nation-wide fame in 1911 by his fight on the high cost of living. He found that the city market was failing to bring the producer and consumer together and imported 16 carloads of potatoes which he retailed at 75 cents a bushel. Potatoes then were retailing at $1.40, but prices tumbled over night. Shank also sold fruits, vegetables and poultry in competition with the city market.

He took delight in performing marriage ceremonies and always turned over whatever fee he was given to the bride as a present.

The former mayor served one term as recorder in this county. Formerly he was an auctioneer and storage house proprietor.

ON TO WASHINGTON

Delegation of Vote Wanters to National Capital.

Suffragettes in Large Numbers Are Planning an Invasion of Washington in Behalf of Cause. To See Wilson.

Washington, Nov. 28.—To the call of "votes for women" suffragists from every State are flocking to the capital for a mammoth convention which opens tomorrow and continues a week. Visits to President Wilson, hearings before the Congressional committees on constitutional amendments to enfranchise women, addresses by Senators and Representatives and such leaders of the cause as Miss Jane Addams, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, Senator Helen Ring Robinson, of Colorado; Mrs. Medill McCormick and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, will feature a week of meetings. Such organizations as the National American Woman Suffrage Association, the National College Woman's Suffrage Association, the Congressional Union, the Woman's Political Union, of Kansas, and the Men's League for Suffrage, will be represented.

Although the formal meetings of the convention do not open until Monday the College Woman's Association and the National Woman Suffrage Association will have a joint session tomorrow and plans for the opening of the suffrage school under the auspices of the Congressional Union, immediately at the close of the convention, will be perfected.

Lectures morning, afternoon and evening will be given by suffrage workers. The "Art of Lobbying" will be expounded in six lectures by Mrs. Sherman K. Booth, a foremost worker in winning votes for women in Illinois. Automobile campaigns, street meetings, "How to Reach the Man Voter," "Suffrage as It Affects the home," and other subjects will be treated. Mrs. Robert LaFollette will lecture on "How to Reach the Rural Voter in a Suffrage Campaign."

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Senator Chamberlain, Representative Victor Murdock, Progressive party leader of the House; Assistant Secretary Post, of the Department of Labor, and many other men of public life will address the workers.

Next week's convention, however, promises to deal with the internal affairs of the organization, plans for filling the war chest, new campaigns, and making of converts. It probably will be the most important suffrage gathering ever held in the capital.

BANKS NEED NOT FEAR CURRENCY

Restricting Credits to Meet Provisions of New Bill

M'ADOO ISSUES STATEMENT

Declares Funds of the Treasury Are at Their Disposal When the Time Comes—Crop Money is Used.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Secretary McAdoo issued a statement tonight declaring that if banks throughout the country are, as reported, restricting credits to meet provisions of the expected currency law, they are making a mistake. He announced that the resources of the Treasury will be at the disposal of the banks to aid them in compiying with the new law.

The statement in part said: "The Secretary expressed the conviction that the new law will impose no hardships on the banks and that the transfers of capital and reserves to the proposed Federal reserve banks will be accomplished with little or no inconvenience to the banks and to general business. The Secretary said that the Treasury Department had large available resources at its command; that he should not hesitate to use them for the purpose of aiding the banks to comply with the new law and that in his opinion the banks could with perfect safety proceed with the granting of accommodations to their customers in the normal and usual way.

"The Secretary said that he did not, of course, assume to advise the banks—he only wanted them and the business public to know that there is no ground for apprehension and that the attitude of the Treasury Department is to be helpful and that he thought it could be effectively helpful. He said that if any banks are laboring under the impression that the new law will necessitate or occasion a restriction of credits they are controlled by error.

"The Secretary stated that up to date the banks had called upon the Treasury for only $52,661,000 for crop moving purposes; that these deposits were, under the arrangements, to be returned in four installments beginning December 15th and ending March 1st.

"The Secretary said that he would consider favorably and upon its merits the application of any National bank holding crop moving deposits for a postponement of 30 days of the time for beginning repayments so that payments may commence on the 15th of January, 1914, instead of on the 15th of December next, as now provided."

Both Found Dead After a Joy Ride

BODIES OF MRS. C. E. BORDEN'S COLORED MAID FROM FAYETTEVILLE AND CHAUFFEUR IN GARAGE.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Richmond, Va., Nov. 28.—Charlotte Blackman, colored, formerly of Fayetteville, N. C., maid for Mrs. Charles E. Borden, 218 Shafer street, was found dead this morning in an automobile in a garage in the rear of the Borden home, and nearby on the floor was found the body of William Shannon, a negro chauffeur, with whom it develops she went joy riding last night. The discoverey was made after forcible entrance had been made into the place. Though it was reported at first to be a case of murder and suicide, the coroner said that both deaths were due to natural causes.

The woman's body will be shipped tomorrow to Fayetteville, N. C., her former home. Mrs. Borden, who has been ill since the recent sudden death of her husband, was completely unnerved by the excitement incident to the affair.

OUTLINES

The Finley funeral at Washington yesterday was one of much solemnity and was attended by many. All services on the entire system were stopped for five minutes.

OBSTACLES IN WAY OF CURRENCY BILL

Conference May Extend Into Next Week

WORK DRAGGED YESTERDAY

Several Sections of Bill Were Returned to the Committee for Re-Writing—Several Different Reasons.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Obstacles encountered by the Senate Democrats in their consideration of the administration currency bill in conference today, threatened to extend the meeting over into next week. Work on the bill today dragged. Practically no material amendments were made in the draft as presented by the five administration Democrats on the Banking and Currency committee.

Several Senators tonight thought the conference would be unable to conclude its consideration of the bill before Tuesday or Wednesday, notwithstanding the vote to finish tomorrow night. The leaders still hope, however, to present the bill to the Senate on Monday.

Arrangements were made today for the opening of the regular session of Congress Monday. Acting House Majority Leader Johnson conferred with Senate Leader Kern, and it was arranged to have the President read his regular message to Congress at a joint session Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The currency conference referred back to the committee several paragraphs to be re-drawn with changes of phraseology or for form. One of these was to provide that no member of the Federal reserve board which will control the new system should be allowed to accept a position with any member bank for a period of years after leaving the Federal board.

The paragraph allowing National banks to act as executors and administrators also was referred back to the committee to be drawn so that it would not conflict with the laws of various States.

The question of the number of regional reserve banks to be created has been left open and probably will be taken up tomorrow for settlement. The Georgia Senators insist that if the South is to have a regional bank it should be located at Atlanta.

While progress was slow today the leaders were satisfied that the Owen draft of the bill finally would be adopted with but few changes. The question of binding the Democrats to support the conference bill as a party measure has not yet been taken up but it is expected that a binding reso-

Virginia Cities' Protests and Other Cases to be Heard by Chairman Clark of Inter-State Commerce Commission.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—Chairman Clark, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, decided today that the hearings of the protests of the Virginia cities against the proposed reduction in freight rates to North Carolina points would begin at Greensboro December 16th, and that he would personally conduct the hearings.

All cases will be held at the Gate City and besides the Virginia cities' case, every phase of the long and short haul controversy from the western territory to North Carolina will be threshed out.

Winchester Wins.

E. C. Winchester wins in the fight for the postmastership at Monroe. Representative Page today recommended Winchester for appointment and his nomination is expected to be sent to the Senate early next week. Roland F. Beasley and Secretary of the Navy Daniels tried to have Geo. Beasley appointed for the place, but failed.

The Secretary of the Navy and R. F. Beasley were seen leaving Postmaster General Burleson's office this afternoon and it is presumed the news that Winchester would be named had been broken to them. P. R. A.

THAW STILL FIGHTING.

Filed Answer to Petition of New York State.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 28.—Harry K. Thaw filed in the United States district court today his answer to the petition of the State of New York that Sheriff Holman A. Drew be made custodian of the Matteawan fugitive with authority to deliver him to the New York officials under the extradition warrant issued by Governor Felker. Action on the warrant was stayed by habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Thaw.

Thaw sets forth that custody under the extradition warrant would be illegal and oppressive becaused based on an unconstitutional statute and an order of commitment without trial.

NOBLE IS PRESIDENT

North Carolina Teachers' Assembly Elects Officers.

Following Brilliant Concert, Bust of Wiley is Presented by Prof. Graham and Accepted by Col. Grimes—Speakers.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 28.—The North Carolina Teachers' Assembly this evening elected as officers for the next year Prof. M. C. S. Noble, University of North Carolina, president; Miss Mary Owen Graham, Charlotte, vice president; Prof. E. E. Sams, State Department of Education, secretary; S. S. Alderman, State Department of Education, assistant secretary; and Prof. C. C. Wright, Wilkes county, and Prof. E. D. Pusey, Goldsboro, members of the executive committee to fill terms expiring.

At the close of a brilliant concert tonight given as a compliment to the Assembly by the people of Raleigh, there was the presentation to the State by the Assembly, of a marble bust of Dr. Calvin H. Wiley, nestor of the public school system of the State. The presentation address was by Acting President E. K. Graham, of the University of North Carolina, and the acceptance on the part of the State was by Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State.

High Tributes Paid.

Dr. Wiley was superintendent of schools in North Carolina for 14 years up to 1865 and won fame throughout the country for the great advancement achieved. He was invited to address practically all the legislatures in the South on educational matters as an especially high authority. High and deserving tributes were paid Dr. Wiley by President Graham and Col. Grimes. Here for the ceremony as special guests of the Assembly were Mr. J. W. Wiley and Miss Mary C. Wiley, of Winston-Salem, son and daughter of Dr. Wiley; Miss Wiley being now an especially gifted and successful teacher.

Dr. Branson Speaks.

The Assembly also heard tonight a very able address by Prof. E. C. Branson, of Georgia State Normal School, on "Know Your Home State Clubs." He told of most gratifying achievements by the Georgia clubs and declared that the time is ripe for the formation of similar clubs in this State, that could easily accomplish far more for this State than the Georgia club has for that State.

BILL SWEENEY MENTIONED.

As Manager of Cincinnati Baseball Team.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 28.—The name of Capt. Bill Sweeney, of the Boston Nationals, was brought into the field of possible candidates for manager of the Cincinnati baseball team today in a letter sent to Sweeney from New York by President James G. Gaffney, of the local club.

Saying that he took into consideration the fact that in other years the Cincinnati team had tried to procure Sweeney as manager, Gaffney notified the Boston captain that he had permission to negotiate for the position if he desired.

"Were you to succeed it would bring a mingled sense of reluctance and pleasure to me," President Gaffney wrote.

Sweeney said tonight he would consider the matter.

NEW PHASE OF PROBLEM

Short Crop of Potatoes Being Bought Up for Speculation—Embargo on Spuds.

Washington, Nov. 28.—A new phase of the cost of living problem was brought to the attention of the Department of Agriculture today. T. P. Gill, secretary of the Irish board of agriculture, told Secretary Houston that speculators in the large cities of the United States were actively buying up this year's short American potato crop and planning to hold out for high prices, counting on existing quarantine against potatoes from many foreign countries to aid them in their undertaking.

Mr. Gill is here to urge the removal of the embargo on potatoes from Ireland. He insists that the powdery scab found on potatoes imported from Ireland is no cause for quarantine because a similar blemish already is common in the United States and declares that continuance of the embargo will contribute to the growing cost of livnig. Secretary Houston and the Federal horticultural board held a conference after Mr. Gill's statement.

Representative McKellar, of Tennessee, author of a pending bill to prohibit the keeping of products in cold storage for more than 90 days, was in conference today with Department of Justice officials over the department's investigation of the storage of eggs, poultry and dairy products. It is said a parliamentary inquiry has revealed that 55 per cent. of the present egg supply held in storage is in the hands of the great meat packers of the country.

Letters and telegrams poured in today from all parts of the country, from individuals, associations of various kinds, and from business men, praising the department's effort to break high food prices by proceedings against the alleged combination of cold storage dealers.

Housewives who say they have felt the oppressive hand of high prices in many ways wrote telling of their individual experiences and heads of organizations that have taken an active part in trying to reduce the living cost

NOTABLES TO SEE ARMY-NAVY GAME

President Wilson and Cabinet Will Be There

MANY THOUSAND SPECTATORS

Weatherman Predicts Cloudy Weather and Perhaps a Little Rain—Keep Gridiron Covered With Straw Until Game.

New York, Nov. 28.—With the rival teams and the advance guard of spectators already in quarters for the Army-Navy football game here tomorrow, this city tonight has taken on the unfamiliar aspect of a college town on the eve of a big athletic contest.

The transportation began with the arrival of the Naval and Military Academy elevens, substitutes and coaches, the middies reaching here last night and the West Point cadets this forenoon. Every succeeding train brought a fresh quota of brilliantly uniformed and gowned humanity, and tonight even the most blase New Yorkers were aware that something unusual was about to happen.

Although big college football contests are not beyond the memory of old inhabitants, the annual game between the two arms of the United States service with its distinguished and uniformed assemblage of spectators is a novelty. While the sailors and soldiers have met upon the gridiron 17 times since 1890, New York never has been the scene of the game.

Local hotels took on new picturesqueness tonight because of the presence of Army and Navy officers, squads of West Point cadets and Annapolis middies. Tables were at a premium in the leading restaurants and several of the more pretentious hotels reported their capacity accommodations booked until Sunday.

President Wilson, who will witness the game with members of his family and cabinet, arrived this evening and spent the night at the home of friends. During the game he will divide his time equally between the Army and Navy sides.

Prominent Boxholders.

In addition to the chief executive, there will be many prominent boxholders. A partial list includes the following: Vice President Marshall, Secretary of State Bryan, Secretary of War Garrison, Secretary of Treasury McAdoo, Secretary of Commerce Redfield, Attorney General McReynolds, Postmaster General Burleson, Admiral George Dewey, Major General Leonard Wood, Major General Thomas H. Barry, Rear Admirals Charles D. Sigsbee, R. B. Bradford, J. A. Rogers, W. N. Little, Richard Wainwright, T. B. Howard and W. H. Brownson; Brigadier General A. L. Mills, Speaker Champ Clark, United States Senators Elihu Root and James A. O'Gorman, of New York; Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts; Thomas B. Catron, New Mexico; Ollie James, Kentucky; N. P. Bryan, Florida; W. J. Stone, Missouri; H. A. Dupont, Delaware, and N. Miles Poindexter, Washington; Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland; John D. Archbold, General Horace Porter, Dr. John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton University; Thomas A. Edison and others.

All that is needed to make the 18th game between the two academy elevens notable, both from the point of a record assembly and spectacular play, is favorable weather. On this point the local weather man has assumed a rather dubious attitude. His prediction calls for cloudy and unsettled atmospheric conditions. A thick coating of straw protects the gridiron tonight and will not be removed until noon tomorrow.

Both teams visited the Polo Grounds today for final practice. The work out was secret in both cases. The coaches stated that all the players weer in condition for the hard game, but refused to express any opinion on the outcome. The gridiron was pronounced fast and suitable for the open play which each eleven is likely to use.

Navy Team is Favorite.

Wagering on the result of the game finds the Navy team 10 to 7 favorite.

The demand for tickets continues to increase. Every available foot of space that will hold a seat has been utilized and as a result close to 45,000 persons will witness the game. Very few tickets have reached the hands of speculators and these are held at prohibitive prices. Twenty and twenty-five dollars each is the rate quoted for coupons of three dollar value, yet the speculators found eager customers at these figures.

An army aeroplane decorated with army flags may be seen above the Polo Grounds prior to the football game between West Point and Annapolis tomorrow. Sergt. Samuel Katzman, of the artillery corps, at West Point, said tonight he had received permission from the military and football authorities to make the flight Katzman said he would start from Governor's Island.

The probable line-up for the game follows:

Army.	Position.	Navy.
Mark	LE	Ingram
Wynne	LT	Ralston
Huston	LG	Howe
McEwan	C	Perry
Jones	RG	Brown
Weyand	RT	Vaughan
Merrill, A. T.	RE	Gilchrist (C.)
Pritchard	QB	Nichols
Hoge (C.)	LH	McReavy
Hodgson	RH	Failing
Benedict	FB	Harrison

Officials: Referee, W. Langford, of Trinity; umpire, A. Sharpe, of Yale; head linesman, C. Marshall, of Harvard; time of quarters, 15 minutes.

Nice, France, Nov. 28.—A naval rifle team from the American warships was beaten by 138 points today in a match against a team from the crack Nice Rifle Club.

THE TIME HAS COME

To Restore Confidence in the Industries.

Wipe the Slate Clean and Regulate the New Laws So That Tansgressions of the Past Can't Be Repeated.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 28.—The time has come, in the opinion of Samuel Untermyer, who was chief counsel for the Pujo committee investigating the money trust to restore confidence in the industries of the United States, including the railroads. How this could be accomplished, he outlined tonight in a speech before the Economic Club here.

A halt should be called, he said, upon further governmental investigations into the past crimes in the looting of corporations; the slate should be wiped clean, and the work of reframing and strengthening the laws to make impossible repetitions of previous offenses then begun.

He outlines steps as follows:

The pending currency bill should be passed.

Give the railroads living rates, "or they will perish whilst we are reframing the laws under which they are hereafter to live."

Abolish fiscal agencies, so-called, voting trusts and interlocking directorates.

Make it a criminal offense for any officer or director of a corporation to borrow from or make a prfit out of his corporation.

Destroy holding companies.

Give minority stockholders representation in the directorates of their corporations.

Place railroad re-organizations under the control of the Inter-State Commerce Commission and the courts.

Compel the incorporation of stock exchanges so that the books of their members may be subject to governmental inspection.

Enforce complete publicity of all corporate transactions; and especially require the fullest disclosure of all profits of bankers, brokers and middlemen.

Limit the directors of National banks and inter-State public service corporations to nine.

Constitute a Federal industrial commission to which the court would turn over the dissolution of corporations declared unlawful.

Give to this commission the power to approve agreements between competitors regulating prices and output for a limited term and to the extent necessary to protect them against ruinous competition, but under conditions that will fully safeguard the public.

Mr. Untermyer spoke on "How to restore confidence." There had been a sudden and alarming cessation in business activity all over the country, he said. Primarily, he thought, it was due to uneasiness emanating from the disclosures "of rottenness in corporate management" to pending and impending legislation affecting the financial system and the trusts, and to the inability of railroads to secure rates which would permit them to maintain their properties and give fair returns on invested capital. He added:

"I think we should call a halt upon further governmental investigation into the past crimes in the looting of corporations. By pursuing the subject further we would doubtless learn of innumerable more instances, but the evidence would be cumulative only."

HIGH PRIEST HANISH IS FOUND GUILTY

Of Sending Obscene Matter by Express—Sentence.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Otoman Zar Adusht Hanish, "High Priest of Mazdaznan," and leader of the Mazdaznan cult, of Sun Worshippers, said to number about 14,000 in different cities, was found guilty by Federal jury here today of sending objectionable literature by express in violation of the inter-State commerce laws. He may be sentenced to five years' imprisonment or $50,000 fine or both.

The verdict brands as unfit for circulation the text book of the cult. The book was read to the jury and almost no other evidence was offered by either side. The book prescribed sun baths and herb remedies, but the feature objection by the government was a treatise on sex relations.

Hanish was trapped by Dana Angier, a postal inspector, who wrote from Brookfield, Mo., asking under a fictitious name, for a copy of the text book. Hanish sent the book by express to avoid conflict with postal regulations.

Hanish is at liberty under his roginal bond of $10,000. Hearing of motions and sentence will be by Judge Mack next week.

FOOD FROM TREES

Various Forest Dishes Would Form Full Course Dinner

(From the Washington Post)

If one could gather together the products of the different food-producing trees he could get quite a substantial meal.

For instance, in Venezuela is the cow tree, which derives its name from the fact that when the trunk is cut a stream of milk gushes out—milk of thick, creamy consistency, with a balmy fragrance. The milk flows best in the early morning and at sunset. At these times the natives come from far and near with bowls or pails to get their family supply of the milk. It is of such thickness that if left to "set" it very soon becomes cheese.

Another one of nature's dairies is the butter tree. The name is also given to several tropical trees which yield certain oils that can be used for butter. The real butter tree grows in Central Africa. From the kernels of the fruit is obtained rich butter that can be preserved for a year or more.

In order to make the meal complete there should be bread to go with the butter and this is provided by the bread tree, which flourishes in the islands of the Pacific. The tree is of good size, with large lobed leaves and fruit of a roundish form, from four to seven inches in diameter. This fruit, when baked, resembles bread somewhat and is eaten by the natives as such.

A boon to the weary wayfarer is the traveler's tree, found in Madagascar. It will grow in the most arid desert, and no matter how dry the weather is, a quart of water always flows out when the stalk is punctured. The water is pure, clear and pleasant to the taste. The leaves of the tree are from 10 to 15 feet in length.

In order to provide light for their darkness, the natives of the South Sea Islands make use of the candle tree. Its fruit is heart-shaped and the seeds when boiled make tallow that is excellent for candles. The natives remove the shells, bake and string the kernels and preserve them. Five or six of the kernels are enough to supply a good clear light.

In Jamaica is found the so-called "life tree." If the leaves are broken from the plant they will continue to grow. Nothing but fire will destroy this tree.

A tree that loves darkness rather than the light is the "sorrowful tree," found in western India. It is so called because it weeps every morning. The tree flourishes only in the dark. Through the day and up until sunset not a flower can be seen, but after darkness has fallen the tree becomes a mass of blossoms. At sunrise the flowers drop off in a shower, thus producing the effect of weeping. The blossoms open every night in the year.

Another kind of traveler's tree has leaves that closely resemble the plantain. No part of it is edible, but the large leaf stalks are used for the partitions and walls of houses, and the leaves themselves for thatch roofing.

In China can be found many interesting tree growths, but most of the peculiar effects are produced by expert tree grafting. For instance, before the gates to many of the temples are evergreen trees split up from the bottom for about six feet. The two halves are then set about three feet apart, and each has the same curve to the place where they meet, thus forming a sort of arch, through which it is expected the worshiper shall pass on entering the temple.

The Chinese are very fond of braiding sprouts together, and allowing them to grow in that way. Throughout the empire many other attempted improvements on nature may be found as a result of the marvelous horticultural skill of the yellow people.

One of the strangest trees in the world is the ambash, whose wood is the lightest known, being only about two-fifths as heavy as cork. It is found in the waters on Lake Chad, in Africa, a body of water remarkable for the fact that, while it has an area of 10,000 square miles, it averages only six feet in depth.

The value of the property against which the company's bonds have been issued is said to total between $200,000 and $25,000,000 and according to counsel the proceedings against the company were instituted as a friendly action to protect the bondholders. The concern is capitalized at $3,950,000.

H. Ireland, of Greensboro; George L. Hackney, Lexington; E. A. Cole, Charlotte; Dorman Thompson, Statesville, and W. R. Odell, Concord.

The ballot for the other delegate was taken but the result will not be announced until Saturday. The first ballot for the six clerical delegates was cast, but the result is not yet known. Two of the lay delegates elected have not been elected to the General Conference before.

Admitted to Trial.

Eight young preachers were admitted on trial in the Conference today, nine were received into full connection, four traveling and four local preachers elected to deacon's orders. The characters of the preachers in five districts were passed and their reports were submitted and one preacher, G. E. Eaves, was located at his own request.

Rumor Corrested.

James Cannon presented the interest of the Southern Assembly and said that he desired to correct the rumor that some of the stockholders were using Methodists to make money for themselves out of the assembly and said no stockholder can ever receive more than 7 per cent on his investment. The Conference adopted a resolution pledging support to the assembly.

E. M. Hoyle, from the North Carolina Conference, and C. H. Postello, from the South Georgia Conference, were received by transfer to this Conference.

The anniversary of the Conference board of church extension was held this evening and Rev. W. F. McMurray, secretary of the board of church extension of the entire church spoke.

MILD SENSATION AT A LUNCHEON.

Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, Would Vote for Justice.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, caused a mild sensation today at a luncheon attended by all the Latin-American diplomats in Washington by announcing that he would vote for "Justice to Columbia from the United States" if he ever got an opportunity to cast a deciding vote in the controversy between this country and the South American country brought about by the separation of Panama. As soon as Senator Chamberlain sat down, Ambassador Dagama, of Brazil, dean of the Latin-American corps, suggested that the party break up, and this was done in silence.

The episode took place at a luncheon given by John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, in honor of his 47th birthday anniversary and the 13th of his connection with Latin-American affairs. In addition to the Latin American ministers Solicitor Folk, of the State Department; Boaz W. Long, chief of the Latin-American division and a few personal friends were present.

Ambassador Dagama and Senor Calvo, of Costa Rica, spoke in happy vein, praising Mr. Barrett and his work. Rt. Rev. Charles W. Currie, bishop of Matanzas, declared that the time ought to be near when the United States would not monopolize the term American, but when it should be applied alike to all countries on the Western Hemisphere.

"The Americas for Americans," was the keynote of Senator Chamberlain's address. He declared the countries of North and South America should unite to keep out the 'peril to the west of us" and to perserve "the civilization and the ideals now possessed by countries of the Western Hemisphere."

MODIFY REGULATIONS.

Governing the Collections of the Income Tax.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Instructions were issued by the Treasury Department tonight to collectors of internal revenue modifying the regulation governing the collection of the income tax on bonds and other similar obligations of corporations. Bankers or other collecting agents are now authorized to attach to interest coupons presented for collection their own certificates instead of certificates of ownership presented by the owners as originally required. This change was made to meet widespread complaint that attaching the owner's certificate would give undesirable publicity.

Other modifications issued tonight extend until March 31st, 1914, the requirement that the number of bonds from which interest coupons are detached be filled in and extend until January 15th, 1914, the time for the use of a form prescribed for foreign holders of coupons or interest orders.

GUESTS OF HONOR.

Washington Entertains Distinguished Canadians on Way Home.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Washington had as guests of honor today Premier Robert L. Borden, of Canada, and Mrs. Borden, who spent the day and evening in the capital on their way home after a month's stay at Hot Springs, Va. The visitors went directly to the British embassy upon their arrival and soon afterward Secretary Bryan called to escort the premier to the White House to meet the President.

Later Mr. Borden was given a club luncheon by Secretary of Interior Lane, an old personal friend. Tonight Secretary and Mrs. Bryan gave a dinner at their home in honor of the Premier and Mrs. Borden and Sir William Tyrrell, private secretary to the British Foreign Minister. The guests included Lady Spring-Rice, wife of the British ambassador, whose health would not permit him to be present; the French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand; the German Ambassador and Countess Bernstorff; the Costa Rican minister and Madame Calvo; the Norwegian minister and Madame Bryn; the Chief Justice and Mrs. White; Justice Hughes and Mrs. Hughes; Senator Newlands and Mrs. Newland; Senator and Mrs. Sutherland; Representative and Mrs. Cooper.

CONFISCATE AMMUNITION FOUND ON SHIP.

10,000 Rounds and Many Revolvers Discovered on Steamer.

New York, Nov. 28.—Ten thousand rounds of rifle and revolver ammunition were seized by customs inspectors this afternoon aboard the steamer Seminole lying at her pier here. The Seminole was to sail tomorrow for Haiti and San Domingo.

The confiscated ammunition was hidden in many different parts of the vessel. The Seminole's officers said they did not know of its presence. They placed the responsibility on members of the crew.

The raid on the Seminole was made by order of Nelson A. Henry, surveyor of the port. The ship's manifest failed to state that the ammunition was on board, in violation of the custom laws, and also of the passenger laws, as the Seminole is a passenger-carrying vessel.

Some of the ammunition, valued in all at $2,500, was found under the coal in the bunkers and some in the boilers of the unused donkey engines and in matting covered ventilators.

The customs authorities began an investigation to find the persons responsible. The ammunition was taken to New Jersey to be destroyed and the revolvers to the custom house.

CROSS-TIE HEARING

Had Before the Corporation Commission Yesterday

Deaths of Railroad Presidents Delay Hearings on Other Matters—Judge Bragaw's Successor—Advent of Suffrage.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 28.—This was the date for special hearings before the Corporation Commission on proposed classifications of freight rates and kindred matters, but the deaths of President Finley, of the Southern, and President Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, prevented the attendance of a number of railroad officials necessary to the complete hearing.

The special matter was a new rule proposed by the Corporation Commission that would allow the mixing of classifications by a shipper in making up a carload that shall be entitled to the carload rates.

Also there was to be up the matter of reducing rates on cross-ties, this case coming from Wilmington. Mr. Head, attorney in the cross-tie case, was here and was heard. Also J. L. Graham, of Winston-Salem, was heard in the interest of petitioners in several of the matters pending.

Shipman, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, says the most gratifying success is attending the special campaign he is directing throughout the State for increasing the membership of the local lodges. A report from Fayetteville brings the news of 30 new members already added to the lodge there as a result of the campaign. The lodge at Hendersonville reports 23 additions there; 19 at Green Mountain; 18 at Raleigh, and nearly as good reports at many other points in the State.

ORPHAN GIRL DIES.

Burns Prove Fatal to Miss Hallie Graves at Goldsboro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—Miss Hallie Graves died at the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home in this city at six o'clock yesterday morning and was buried at Belcross, N. C., today. She was 15 years old and had been an inmate of the Home about five years.

Wednesday morning at 10:40 o'clock while near the stove in the kitchen at the orphanage preparing dinner, her apron caught fire and the flames almost instantly enveloped her whole body. Although one of the small boys tried to throw a bucket of water on the flame-wrapped girl, in her excitement she ran into the back yard where the wind fanned the fire into a more furious flame until her entire body was enveloped as she rushed back into the building, followed by one of the larger boys who tore her burning garments away, leaving her physically exhausted and fatally burned. She was immediately taken to the Goldsboro hospital, just across the street, where the Home's physician, Dr. J. Rainey Parker, assisted by two other physicians, together with numberless benevolent hands, rendered every human aid. While little hope was entertained for her recovery, loving hands ministered to her in her agony until next morning at six o'clock when she died from the effects of the burning.

The remains were prepared for burial at a local undertaking establishment and, accompanied by Mr. E. Leff. Wagoner, superintendent of the Home, left on the 10:25 P. M. Norfolk Southern train for Belcross, N. C., where interment took place early today. The girl has a mother living near Elizabeth City and an aunt living near Belcross where the interment was made in the old family plot beside her deceased father.

NOTES FROM OAK RIDGE.

New Building Rapidly Approaching Completion—Dr. Tagg Visits.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Oak Ridge, N. C., Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving season here finds an unusual number of students on a visit to their homes. It is interesting to note how rapidly this disposition of our Southern youth has grown in the last 10 or 15 years. Prior to 1900 we of the South thought little of Thanksgiving. The time seems to have come when we shall have to readjust our school terms, and prepare for a week's holiday at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Holt of Washington City are spending a few days on the Ridge. He has recently traded a valuable piece of property, a dairy and truck farm below Mount Vernon, for a large apartment house on Dupont Circle in Washington City. He previously and still owns the Fairfax, a large apartment house on Lincoln Park. It is his intention to devote himself to real estate in the future.

We had a very delightful visit last week from Dr. F. T. Tagg, the editor of the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore. Dr. Tagg is easily one of the ablest editors of the United States. He has been a close personal friend of every President in the last 20 years. He was a friend of Wm. E. Gladstone, and has known intimately perhaps more great men than any other whom we know. He made an interesting talk to the students.

The building which has been on the way for some weeks, for bath room, etc., is rapidly approaching completion. When finished this building will cost between $1,500 and $2,000. It will include a high power gasoline engine, bringing the water from a deep well, a pneumatic tank containing 1,500 gallons, heaters, etc., several shower bath fixtures, dressing room, thoroughly sanitary and up-to-date closets, and a complete system of sewerage. This will prove to be quite an addition to the equipment here and will supply a long-felt want. It is hoped to have this building completely finished and all fixtures installed within two weeks.

CAPITAL CASE ON TRIAL.

True Bill Against Franklin, Stobbs and Pigford.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—Superior court in session here this week took no recess for Thanksgiving, but continued work on its heavy criminal docket. The capital case against Herman Bizzell, the negro boy charged with ambushing and killing his father, is now being tried, all the morning session being consumed in securing a jury.

The grand jury also turned in a true bill for murder against the three white men, Franklin, Stobbs and Pigford, in the Powell case. When arraigned, their case was continued under prayer of the State until the January term on account of the absence of material witnesses. Bond was fixed at $2,000 each and at a late hour tonight Stobbs and Franklin had not been able to furnish the bond.

The grand jury filed their report of having visited the jail, clerk and register's offices, convict camp and county home, finding conditions satisfactory, except some minor repairs recommended to the county home, and were discharged by Judge Daniels.

GREAT SCHOOLS OF SHAD.

Fishermen Busy Off Cove and Bogue Banks.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 28.—Great schools of shad off Core and Bogue banks for the last 10 days have kept the fishermen there busily occupied. The catches were very profitable, the fish being bought in large quantities by the fertilizer factories on the sounds. Blustery weather on Tuesday and Wednesday caused the shad to disappear temporarily, but with the abatement they have returned to the vicinity of the banks and the catching is resumed. A few of the fish were suitable for market, and five of them including a fine roe, are believed to have been the earliest shad ever marketed here. Antedating the regular season more than a month they found a ready market.

ILL LUCK TO FISHERIES PLANTS.

Both the Carolina and the Ocean Unfortunate.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Nov. 28.—Both plants of the fisheries companies on the Cape Fear river, eight miles above this city, were unfortunate last week. The Ocean had its elevator twisted to one side, and it took several days to get it running again.

The Carolina Coast, had a break in the fish bin on the dock and lost 1,000 barrels of menhaden, which were awaiting transfer to the tanks in the factory on shore. This delayed the work of unloading several days.

The wood sawing machinery for the C. F. L. & Manufacturing Company's plant here, has arrived and is being installed.

Naples, Nov. 28.—The United States naval supply ship Celtic and the fuel ship Cyclops, left here today for the south. The commanders of the battleships Florida and Arkansas exchanged visits with the commander of a Russian cruiser which arrived today.

NEGROES GATHER AT KINSTON.

State and National Leaders of Race Attend Conference.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 28.—Negro leaders in Nation and State are here to attend the annual conference of the North Carolina branch of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. This is one of the strongest denominational organizations of the colored race in the South. Goler, president of Livingstone College, Salisbury, N. C.; Dr. E. D. W. Jones, of Washington, D. C., and J. C. Dancy, of Washington, D. C., will make addresses. The A. M. E. Z. denomination embraces a membership of 600,000 in the world, with eight bishops, more than 2,000 ministers and 21 educational institutions. The highest of the colleges is Livingstone. Fred I. AVERAGE OF 30 CENTS.

Paid for Heavy Breaks of Tobacco at Kinston.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 28.—The Kinston Tobacco Board of Trade has extended the regular Thanksgiving holiday period for the local market through the remainder of the week. Although there were only three sales days this week, more than half a million pounds of the golden weed were marketed. These sales were unusually heavy for the last week in November, and the prices probably surpassed those of any other week since the opening in August. Thirty cents a pound was the average price paid and this is regarded as evidence that the great buyers believe the production for the season will not be more than fairly satisfactory in quantity; the crop is evidently shorter than was expected.

The demand for tobacco in foreign parts is increasing rapidly, due principally to the advertising activities of the cigarette manufacturers and the establishment of factories in Europe, Asia and Australia to which tobacco is shipped from the southern United States. A large part of the tobacco marketed here was exported. Probably a million pounds of the product remains to be sold in Kinston before the market is closed on December 19th.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Three-Year-Old Son of Mr. James Myers, of Falling Creek.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—Frank, the three-year-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. James Myers, living near Falling Creek, this county, was so severely burned Tuesday, that he died from the effects of the burns and was buried yesterday. The little child was playing with matches at the house while the parents were away, when the child's clothing caught fire from the matches ignited by being rubbed on the floor. A little five-year old brother was the only other person in the house, and although the little fellow exercised remarkable presence of mind by throwing water on the burning child, the clothing was completely burned away and the body so badly burned that the child died yesterday morning from the effects of the burn.

BLUE AND DISCOURAGED

Mrs. Hamilton Tells How She Finally Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Warren, Ind.—"I was bothered terribly with female weakness. I had pains and was not regular, my head ached all the time, I had bearing down pains and my back hurt me the biggest part of the time, I was dizzy and had weak feelings when I would stoop over, it hurt me to walk any distance and I felt blue and discouraged.

"I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now in good health. If it had not been for that medicine I would have been in my grave a long time ago."—Mrs. ARTIE E. HAMILTON, R.F.D. No. 6. Warren, Ind.

Another Case.

Esmond, R. I.—"I write to tell you how much good your medicine has done me and to let other women know that there is help for them. I suffered with bearing down pains, headache, was irregular and felt blue and depressed all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and commenced to gain in a short time and I am a well woman today. I am on my feet from early morning until late at night running a boarding house and do all my own work. I hope that many suffering women will try your medicine. It makes happier wives and mothers."—Mrs. ANNA HANSEN, Esmond, Rhode Island.

Saturday, November 29, 1913.

Some people don't know how to look pleasant long enough to have their portrait taken.

A bachelor's idea of a high-tempered belle is that she would make a terribelle wife.

Many a man is regarded as a budding genius till he begins to produce a bloom on his nose.

Men hate to bow to the inevitable but it does not seem to wait on any kind of ceremony.

When a politician makes a dry speech in dry territory it is a sign that he is at least consistent.

It is harder to get up than it is to get down, but that isn't any excuse for getting down on yourself.

The man who never makes mistakes is the man whose wife knows a lot of them that he won't acknowledge.

"In the fallows gray where the nibbling flocks do stray," There can be but grief when we eat imported beef.

The Charleston News and Courier inquires: "Are we getting uglier?" It's more important to know whether we are acting ugly.

When a man wants to locate he should go to a country where only a few of its numerous opportunities have been seized. What this country needs is more seizers.

The Culebra cut continues to slide but Huerta has never made up his mind to do such a thing as to "slide out," as they say in South Carolina when they evade the sheriff.

Having again seen the pictures of Chicago's policewomen, we do not hesitate, at this safe distance, to say that we would resist if any of them were to attempt to arrest our attention.

Some statesman has said that "the days of oratory are gone." It may seem so, but they are not gone anywhere when something like a boosters' banquet is held in a real live town.

There is more politics per square mile in North Carolina than in any State in the Union, judging from the fact that the loud pedal of the daily and weekly press gives forth a continuous political sound.

Gen. Carranza gave a ball at his temporary capital Saturday night, though the dispatches say that he did not dance himself but "promenaded Spanish fashion." That probably means that he strutted around, dressed to kill.

Mr. Al Falfa, Mr. Harry Vetch and Mrs. Lu Cerne are pretty well agreed that there can be no greater increase in farm production until the number of people who go back to the farm is greater than those who keep their back to the farm.

A man in dry territory has fewer excuses for taking umbrage at everything that is said and done, but there are doctors who think he is more liable to take lumbago, sciatica or something else that seems to have been intended for an Italian.

Long periods of dullness are peculiar to the countries that stick to one crop till they get badly stuck. Where there is a versatile soil and a climate with seasons to match, there is no earthly excuse for neglect to diversify and rotate crops.

Says the Charlotte Chronicle: "Gertrude Hoffman may be making a flying trip through the South, but in this part of the country we are perfectly willing to give her time to get something on." The paragraphers are putting it all over Gertie, but it doesn't mend matters, since everybody can see through the jokes on her.

The chief reason that this portion of the country is bound to undergo wonderful development is because it has the compelling resources. They need only the forces that are necessary to be put to work for their development. Where so few of the opportunities in this section are taken advantage of it ought to strike homeseekers that they have a greater choice here than anywhere else.

THE CANAL OPENING.

Col. Goethals may have a pleasant surprise for us on the first of January, now less than 33 days away, but he does not promise it to us in his report concerning the progress of the work on the Panama canal. Tentatively, January 1st was set for the official opening of the great waterway, but the report of the great engineer in charge of the work does not hold out that hope. He is doing to do his best, but we hardly expect that it is possible to make it a New Year's affair.

Some time ago it was conjectured that it would be about the middle of March before the canal could be thrown open to traffic, and, considering the difficulties to be contended with, the country will be glad if ships can then begin to ply the canal. Yet Col. Goethals has not said that a navigable channel is not possible by the first of January. On the contrary, he simply takes the precaution not to make any positive promise of it. Speaking of the difficulties to be contended with in connection with the mountainous slides, particularly at Culebra Cut, his report goes on to explain:

"Last year it was predicted by geologists that the slides had been conquered, and that little more activity could be expected because all the loose surface soil and stone had almost slid aff, exposing great ridges of solid basalt rock which would act as barriers to further earth movements. Yet, when all was most promising and the canal excavation had got within 60 feet of the bottom of the cut on the east side, the rocks broke under the tremendous pressure, and 2,000,000 cubic yards of material slid into and closed up the cut. Since then the canal workers have been digging away that material, and, though there have been several slides, steady progress was made, for not only did the giant dredges work on the face of the slides, but powerful hydraulic monitors, such as were extensively used in hydraulic mining on the Pacific coast, were brought into play to wash away the treacherous hills from the rear, carrying the material into unused valleys distant from the canal."

In the meantime, whether the canal is to be opened January 1st or March 15th, the time is very short for the ports of this country to get ther cargoes assembled for the ships that are going to seek the earliest passage. No doubt it will be a year or more till the new trade route discloses to our South Atlantic ports the opportunities that are to come to them by reason of getting in closer touch with the Pacific side of the world. When traffic does begin to go through the canal, Southern ports will begin to wake up to the meaning of the waterway to them.

THE HAND OF THE BEEF TRUST.

Secretary Josephus Daniels, of the Navy Department, made quite a saving for the Navy a few days ago when he stocked up the supply ships with imported Australian beef, but the circumstance has brought out the fact that after all the so-called beef trust got the business. The fact is, the American packers are the importers of Australian and Argentine beef, just as The Star predicted would be the case, as its files a year or more ago will show. They not only control the home supply but they control the supply coming from other beef-producing countries.

In other words, the packing companies who are importing beef get the benefit of the free entry of meats under our new tariff. Of course, it was intended that consumers should get the benefit of free beef, but, just as should have been expected, the middlemen, who happen to be American packing concerns, get the benefit and are in the position not only to dictate the prices of the meat products of this country but those coming from other countries as well. It is true that foreign meats are selling at lower prices than American meat products, but so far as general consumers are concerned they will hardly feel the effect. The real brunt of the competition will fall upon the cattle raisers of this country, and even were they protected by the tariff the trust would still be able to dictate the price of beef stock in this country.

The beef purchased by Secretary Daniels in New York was bought from Sulzburger & Son, a subsidiary of the so-called Beef Trust. Indeed, the Philadelphia Record says when a cargo of beef arrives from Buenos Ayres, it almost invariably bears the brand of Armour or some such name. It is said, however, that cattle raisers in this country need not expect much competition with foreign cattle raisers, for the surplus for export is not very great either in Australia or South America. There is a meat shortage all over the world, and it makes the cattle-raising industry one of the most promising that Southern farmers can engage in along with their general farming interests.

BUSINESS GOVERNMENT.

Governor Glynn, of New York, recently delivered a speech before the New York Chamber of Commerce and took occasion to stress the fact that business men take too little direct interest and do not sufficiently exercise their influence in government. Doubtless, he was speaking with special reference to New York's State government, but he also spoke in a general way so that both municipal, State and Federal government can be considered.

The Governor said former Senator Aldrich was right when he declared that a business instead of political administration could save this country millions of dollars every year. He signified his willingness to make the experiment in New York, but the one obstacle, as he saw it, was the difficulty of securing the services of sufficient business experts to warrant the creation of a State Commission to handle the question of economic administration.

Whether the New York Governor can start something like a business administration in New York or not, his speech should arouse the whole country to the importance of the subject. It is generally agreed that the greatest cause of failure in municipal, State and Federal government is the indifference of business men. It is particularly so in cities, but business men all over the country should wake up to the fact that they are largely responsible when things go wrong in their cities. They leave it too much to ward politicians, whereas it is a whole community's duty to have a business administration instead of one that mostly concerns municipal politicians.

AFTER THE FOOD TRUST.

The Washington Post tells us that the fact that the American meat packers are monopolizing the importation of beef from foreign countries is hastening the government inquiry into the alleged cold storage conspiracy in this country. Attorney General McReynolds, while looking into the storage of eggs, poultry and dairy products in order to maintain high prices and even force them up, had his eyes open when it was disclosed that the Beef Trust is handling the foreign meats that are coming into this country free of duty. Along with the investigations involving general products, there is a proposal to include the Beef Trust.

Recently Secretary Daniels bought 300,000 pounds of Australian fresh beef for the navy at a half a cent per pound lower than American beef could be bought. He also bought 120,000 pounds of canned beef at eight cents a pound cheaper than the lowest price in the United States. The price paid for the fresh beef was 11.90 cents a pound and for the canned beef 15.37 cents a pound. This foreign beef, it developed, came through the American trust, and so it will be dragged into the investigation that President Wilson's attorney general is to undertake.

A great many people might have been thankful that beef isn't a dollar a pound.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Charlotte has been permitting the Coast Line extension project to rest, pending the completion of the Norfolk Southern. Now that this road is completed and schedules arranged, this city will begin to look around and see what is the immediate prospect of interesting the Coast Line. That company has been waiting to a certain extent on Charlotte, and now that this city is ready to talk business, no time should be lost in renewing negotiations.—Charlotte Observer.

Messrs. J. Z. Green and L. L. Marsh went to Red Springs last week and bought from Rev. C. G. Vardell, president of the Southern Presbyterian College, a part of his herd of Guernsey cattle. These cattle are bred to the highest type and are from such noted ancestry as Glenwoods, Rose of Gold and Pride of Day stock, from advanced registry. Among their purchases is a $250 bull which at anly two years old will weigh about 800 pounds. It is said that nine-tenths of the milk cows in the United States do not pay for their board. A few shipments like the above into this vicinity will begin to revolutionize the type and quality of milkers in this county.—Marshville Home.

The Virginia cities can do no more than tie up the application of the new freight rates in this State for several months. The fact that they have waked up so suddenly to the danger of the shutting off forever of an easy and steady income is excellent evidence that the North Carolina cities now have a chance of coming into their own in a measure. The freight rate question is not yet settled by any means. When the prospective reductions go into effect, Newbern will be almost the only one of the State's larger towns which will not be substantially benefitted. If this is not discrimination, we do not know what is. It behooves this town to speak out loud and clear and long on the freight rate question. If necessary we can use the same arguments on other sections of North Carolina that the State as a whole is using against Virginia.—Newbern Sun.

The hustling city of Wilmington over in New Hanover county, has organized a commercial club that bids fair to be a great help to that city. One of the main objects of the club is to collect data about the city or, in fact, to establish an information bureau in order that prospective manufacturers or other business men who come to the city will not be compelled to chase all over the place to find out a few details in regard to the location of available sites, etc. Real estate dealers and owners of property that is on the market are requested to list their property with the club and to state the price they desire for it. By having some specified price the club hopes to do away with the prevailing tendency of property owners to make an increase as soon as they discover that some stranger desires to purchase. This plan is a creditable one and the new Commercial Club will, without any doubt, be found to be one of the best investments the people of that city ever made.—Newbern Journal.

THAT ROAD SOUTH.

To the Editor of The Star: I am glad to see that our County Commissioners have been in no hurry to spend such a large sum as has been proposed for building a road to the seashore in the southern part of the county.

The farmers down there are entitled to a good road and no doubt will get it, but the county is not called upon to spend a lot of money simply for the purpose of helping a lot of land speculators get rich selling lots which they buy for a few dollars an acre and then sell at the rate of several thousand dollars an acre.

Carolina Beach is already developed to a considerable extent and a good road should be built there as soon as possible but there can be no good reason for building a macadamized road some distance beyond this point until the development of this nearer resort calls for additional seashore accommodations.

It is to be hoped that our county authorities will not be misled into spending a large amount of the taxpayers' money for the purpose of exploiting any wild cat scheme of land speculation. TAXPAYER.

EMERSON AND FINLEY.

FINLEY AND EMERSON.

(Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.)

It was a sad and singular coincidence that the presidents of two of the leading railroad systems of the South should have been stricken by death almost simultaneously. Both were men of conspicuous ability in their respective spheres and the name of each is indelibly connected with those policies of exploitations which in recent years have so much contributed to accelerate progress and development in the sections their lines traversed. It is not long since that we felt called on to commend the wisdom of enterprise which led the Atlantic Coast Line to send through Canada and our Northwestern States a train carrying exhibits illustrative of the industries and products, and displaying in clear and attractive charts the advantages of soil, climate and cheap lands offered by the South to settlers. The policies of Mr. Finley in this respect were even broader, and he regarded no department of the Southern road as more important than that which was charged with the building up of the territory it served by constant advertising of the wealth of its resources and the rich returns awaiting their development. Thus, at the same time to advance the interests of the communities tributary to his roads, and to enhance permanently the volume of business seeking transportation, was the problem to which his energies were most enthusiastically directed. He had large visions of the future of the property he administered, and it was based on unbounded faith in the future of the South. In management of operative details he was not rated so highly as in the field for which he had greater talent and predilection, and in this particular Mr. Emerson took superior rank. Both were held in warm esteem for sterling qualities of heart and character, and both had peculiar qualifications for the posts they filled.

THE DEATH OF PRESIDENT EMERSON.

(Columbia State.)

When some slight account was written for the editorial columns of The State yesterday of the services of President Finley of the Southern Railway, impending death had not then claimed, by a melancholy coincidence, the same day, Thomas M. Emerson, the president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, another of the three greater railroads that serve the people of South Carolina.

No man could be at the head of the Atlantic Coast Line who was not a master of the railroad business, for that its affairs have been conducted with distinguished ability is everywhere conceded. Mr. Emerson was personally more closely associated with Columbia than was Mr. Finley, having spent some part of his early manhood in the service of the company here. Practically his whole life, after he had reached man's estate was given to the company whose chief he was when he died and its excellent condition is testimony of his ability and faithfulness.

As in the case of Mr. Finley, the South loses by the death of Mr. Emerson a strong citizen and one steadfast in his loyalty to the South's interests.

BOATS TO FAYETTEVILLE.

Two New Ones to be Put On Cape Fear Soon.

In the "As I Was Saying" column of the News and Observer Thursday appeared the following that will be of interest to many Star readers:

"Fayetteville is already one of the busiest cities in the State," said Mr. F. R. Hall, register of deeds of Cumberland county, who was in the city Wednesday, "and it would not surprise me much to see it become the largest city in the State. We have the back country and the railroads. And when the government gives us eight feet of water in the Cape Fear as it will in the course of two years, we will have water transportation on a big scale. What will there be then to prevent our becoming a great city?"

Asked about the plans for the replacing of the Cape Fear steamboat that was burned a short while ago, Mr. Hall said that the Fayetteville and Wilmington Steamboat Company, the owners of the boat that was destroyed, would, at an early date, have two new boats in the place of the one that was burned. There is much river traffic on the Cape Fear.

"Another thing that we are planning," said Mr. Hall, "is a more thorough co-operation of the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce and the Cumberland County Agricultural Society. We want our city and our county to have a harmonious development. To this end the members of the city organization are joining the county organization and vice versa. This, we believe, will result in a spirit of co-operation that will be mutually helpful. Just now the cultivation of more tobacco and hay crops is being urged in Cumberland.

"Our street car line is in the hands of a receiver, but a representative of the Harriman interests has visited Fayetteville and I understand that that powerful syndicate will take the system over and if that is done, and there is no doubt that it will be, of course the future of the line is assured.

"Yes, Fayetteville is certainly coming along. It is no mushroom growth, but growth of the solid, substantial sort. Mighty few towns anywhere have as good a back country as Fayetteville has and that is a condition that helps wonderfully in the upbuilding of a city.

"Our people were greatly shocked at the news of the death of President T. M. Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, Fayetteville being on the main line of the Coast Line, and Mr. Emerson having often visited our city. He was greatly admired there. He was every inch a gentleman."

SAIL FOR THE SOUTH.

800 Marines Leave Philadelphia for Florida Gulf Port.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—With 800 marines and a full crew on board the transport Prairie left the Philadelphia navy yard at 1 o'clock today for Southern waters. The transport carries stores and ammunition for a three months' cruise. The marines are commanded by Col. J. A. LeJune. The colonel and officials of the Philadelphia navy yard said that orders name Pensacola, Fla., the objective point of the trip. It has been rumored at the navy yard, however, that these orders may later be changed by wireless telegraph from Washington. The transport was given a noisy good-bye by the sailors and marines of the reserve fleet.

Delaware Breakwater, Del., Nov. 27.—The transport Prairie passed out to sea early tonight. Thanksgiving dinner was served the men just before the vessel reached this point.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

THE COST OF LIVING

Prices of Staple Foods in Wilmington

Comparison of Local Market Figures With Those of Other Cities—Government Investigating Situation.

Whether it is the cost of high living or the high cost of living that makes it hard for the average American citizen to make both ends meet when the monthly bills have to be settled is a question that the United States government is now trying to answer. Investigators have recently visited several of the larger cities of the country and obtained an imposing array of figures that it is hoped will give some little light on this important matter.

This investigation embraced 40 of the larger cities of the country, those in the South being Atlanta, Charleston, Jacksonville and Birmingham. Recently a report was made that showed that Boston was the most expensive place in which to live and Atlanta the second in expensiveness. Atlanta ever ready to be in the limelight as the most favorable place under the shining sun in which to live, got busy. The Chamber of Commerce got busy and using the government figures as a basis of comparison showed that the prices of that city were on the average much lower even than those of the neighboring city of Birmingham. Boston was content and as yet has made no kick.

In order to arrive at some conclusion as to how Wilmington would compare in this schedule of prices a number of the leading grocers and butchers of the city were asked to quote prices on staple articles. The highest prices quoted were placed in one column and the lowest in another column. Then an average was drawn. The same was done with the government reports and also with the report by the Chamber of Commerce of Atlanta. The result showed that Wilmington totaled higher than either Atlanta or Birmingham.

The Charlotte News recently made a similar investigation in that city, and the results obtained showed that Charlotte totaled much higher than either of these two cities and also higher than in Wilmington. The results are interesting by way of comparison and are given below for what they are worth.

According to the final estimate made in Charlotte if one living in that city should purchase a pound of sirloin steak, a pound of rib roast, a pound of round roast, a pound of chuck roast, a pound of pork chops, a pound of sliced bacon, a pound of sliced ham, a pound of lard, a pound of mutton, an eighth of barrel of flour, a dozen eggs, a pound of butter, a peck of Irish potatoes and a quart of milk, the cost would have been eight and a half cents greater than in Atlanta and nearly eight cents greater than in Birmingham.

The estimates made for Wilmington, taken on the same basis, show that the same articles will cost two cents more than in Atlanta and one and one-half cents more than in Birmingham. While it is of interest to know that one can live in Wilmington cheaper than in Charlotte it is also somewhat surprising to find that the staple articles here will average slightly higher than in these other two cities. This difference would be reduced nearly a cent, however, if eggs were taken out of consideration. The price on this commodity always varies and at the present time is much higher than either in either Birmingham or Atlanta.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. MERCER

Well Known Wilmington Citizen Found Dead at Home of Mr. Henry Varnum in Brunswick.

The sad news was brought to Wilmington yesterday that Mr. J. Bascom Mercer, a prominent business man of this city, had been found dead in the yard near the home of Mr. Henry Varnum at Lockwood's Folly in Brunswick county. Mr. Mercer went to the home of Mr. Varnum Wednesday. Thursday he appeared to be in his usual good health. During the night he was heard to go out but nothing was thought about it.

Mr. Mercer retired from business several months ago and had since been spending much of his time at the home of Mr. Varnum's on Lockwood's Folly river, three or four miles from Supply, where he was testing out an invention of his own, which cut away the top of shoals, and in the breaking up was so arranged that the fragments were swept out into the deeper water. In this occupation he was apparently enjoying the best of health.

Mr. Mercer when a young man came to Wilmington from Supply, where he was born and reared ,and for a number of years was an inspector on the Cape Fear river for the government. About 20 years ago he went into the shoe business with his uncle, Mr. H. C. Evans. Later he became a member of the firm. Mr. Evans died about 15 years ago, but the business was continued under the same firm name of Mercer & Evans by Mr. Mercer until three or four months ago when he sold out and retired from active business.

Mr. Mercer was born at Supply, in Brunswick county, March 8th, 1855, and was, therefore, 58 years old. He was the son of the late John and Anna Jane Mercer and was closely allied in kinship to many Brunswick citizens.

He was married soon after coming to Wilmington to Miss May Lily, of Albemarle, who survives him. Besides Mrs. Mercer four children survive him, as follows: Mr. Henry B. Mercer, who is with the engineering corps of the Seaboard Air Line at Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Annie Leah Mercer and Masters Gerald and Armstrong Mercer, all of this city. One sister, Mrs. E. M. Walker, of this city, is also living. Tney have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement.

He was a member of a number of fraternal orders among these being Pythagoras Lodge of Masons at Southport, the Odd Fellows, Royal Arcanum and Maccabees of this city.

In young manhood he became a member of the Methodist church and when he moved to Wilmington he joined Grace Methodist church of which he remained a loyal and faithful member until his death. He had for a number of years been a member of the board of stewards in that church. He always took an active interest in church work and will be sadly missed by his fellow members.

Mr. Mercer was a public-spirited man and was always ready to do all in his power to advance the interests of Wilmington. He was a member of the committee on manufactures and public enterprises of the Chamber of Commerce. He attended a meeting of this committee Tuesday afternoon and had planned to be here for another yesterday afternoon.

He was of a kindly, unassuming disposition, greatly interested in everything that made for the betterment of mankind. He was a man of the strictest integrity and honesty. In his dealings he ever tried to do right according to the dictates of his conscience. In his death Wilmington loses one of her best citizens.

C. Ed Taylor, Esq., a nephew of Mr. Mercer, at Southport, was notified of his death and went by automobile to the home of Mr. Varnum. The body was prepared for burial and sent to Southport, arriving there last night. The remains will arrive on the W., B. & S., train this morning at 9:45 o'clock.

The funeral will be held this morning at 11:30 o'clock from the residence, No. 215 South Second street, and will be conducted by Rev. J. D. Bundy, pastor of Grace Methodist church, assisted by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. A delegation of Masons from Pythagoras Lodge at Southport will accompany the remains to Wilmington and the burial will be with Masonic honors.

CONFERENCE FOR MISSIONS

Wilmington Will Join in Nation-wide Campaign—Arrangements Under Way—In January.

Wilmington will take part in the Nation-wide missionary campaign, the present undertaking of the Conference of Foreign Missions Board of North America and the Home Missions Council of the United States, beginning with a conference January 18th, as outlined by Mr. L. B. Padgett, field secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in North Carolina, who recently visited Wilmington and enlisted the aid of the Ministerial Association, which has heartily joined in the movement and appointed committees to carry out the preliminary work.

At a meeting of the general committee at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, presided over by Rev. F. B. Clausen, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, chairmen of various committees were present and the general scope of the work discussed.

It was announced, as previously stated by Mr. Padgett, that the conference in January will be followed by a campaign in March. The conference is known as the educational feature of the general working scheme and will be made most interesting by the visit of some of the leaders in the movement who will speak at the mass meeting to be held on Sunday, January 18th and will be followed on Monday by conferences and a supper. This preliminary is to arouse interest in the purpose of missions and to acquaint the people with the manifold work in the foreign fields. It was also stated by Mr. Padgett that the visiting team of workers will fill the various pulpits of the city on the evening following the mass meeting.

At the general committee conference last evening committees were announced, as follows:

GAMES AT Y. M. C. A.

Two Basketball Contests Last Night Attracted Crowd.

The two games of basketball at the Y. M. C. A. last night were splendid exhibitions of the popular game and were much enjoyed by both spectators and players. The first game, between Captain Hanson's team, No. 1, and Captain Hines' team, No. 3, was fast from the start. K. Davis, for the ones and Farrar, for the threes, showed fast, old-time skill in caging the sphere and carried off the honors for their respective sides. Hanson's team won the game by three points, the final score being 14 to 11. The line-up for the teams was: No. 1, Hanson (captain), and Davis, K., forwards; Lewis, center; Hussey and Coughenour, guards; No. 3, Ed Hines (captain), and Grant, forwards; Farrar, center; Aiken and Dobbins, guards. Referees, Hines and Farrar. Scorers, Lewis.

The second game was much faster and more interesting than the first, though the score is overwhelming in favor of Davis' team, which showed much better team work. Houston showed old-time form but was unable to get his team together in time to stop the winning streak of the No. 2 team. The final score was 11 to 1 in favor of Davis' team. The line-up of the teams follows: No. 2, Davis, N. (captain), and McIntire, forwards; Weathers, center; Johnson and Lewis, R., guards; No. 4, Houston, B. H. (captain), and Cole, forwards; Johnson, O., center; Walker and Coughenour, guards. Referee, Houston; scorer, Fillyaw.

AN UNUSUAL RUNAWAY.

Mule in Funeral Procession Got Scared—Threw Casket to Ground.

While the proverbial mule is noted for its unreliable disposition it is seldom that it is the cause of such an unusual and peculiarly horrible mishap as occurred in the southern part of Cumberland county on Monday of this week. A mule drawing the wagon on which were the remains of Mr. H. A. Hall, an aged citizen of that section, whose death occurred Sunday, for some unaccountable reason ran away. The casket was pitched to the ground and the body thrown on one side of the road while the casket fell on the other side. The mule ran more than a half mile before it stopped and the wagon was almost torn to pieces. Mr. Hall was a Confederate veteran and one of the highly respected citizens of his community.

MANY BEFORE THE RECORDER

"Full House" Yesterday, Representing Accumulation Over Thanksgiving Road Sentences.

In a fit of passion yesterday morning Ed Moore, colored, slashed Frank Bass, another negro, across the wrist of his right arm with a knife, cutting several of the sinews, and within two hours was brought before the Recorder, who gave him 12 months on the county roads. Bass went to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, and 13 stitches were taken to sew up the ugly wound. He was able to appear in court to testify.

According to the evidence Bass and Moore lived together on Campbell street, between Fifth and Sixth. On Thursday night Moore claimed that Bass and several other negroes "double banked" him, and against such odds he was unable to keep from being overpowered. Yesterday morning when he met Bass he drew his knife and with the first lick struck him across the stomach, cutting a long strip through the clothing but not reaching the flesh. Bass threw up his arm to protect himself, and caught the full force of the next blow across the wrist. Policeman C. E. Wood made the arrest.

Tom Davis, colored, was charged with assaulting his wife and as it appeared to be an aggravated case, the Recorder gave him three months on the county roads. "Babe" Singletary, colored, who on numerous occasions has been charged with violating the prohibition law, was up again yesterday on the same charge, and was given six months on the roads. He is a cripple which makes his case all the more pitiable. George Moore, alias Puckle alias George Grady, colored, was also up charged with selling whiskey. He was given three months on the county roads.

Amos Matthews, white, charged with disorderly conduct, went to the roads for 30 days in default of payment of a fine of $5 and the costs. Sherman McClaren, colored, for a similar offense, also went to the roads for 30 days in default of payment of a fine of $5 and costs. Alex Taylor, colored, was up on two charges, one for speeding and the other for running an automobile at night without a rear light. Judgment was suspended in the first case, and he was fined $10 and the costs in the second. He went to the roads for 30 days in default of payment.

Wade McNeal, colored, a convict on the county roads, who was arrested in the city for being drunk and down, was given an additional 30 days on the roads. Willie Williams, colored, charged with shooting a pistol in the city limits, was fined $5 and the costs. He went to the roads for 30 days in default of payment. W. T. Cumber, white, was fined $20 and the costs for disorderly conduct.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in cases against James Hall, colored, charged with speeding; H. C. Knowles, white, charged with disorderly conduct; John Middleton, colored, charged with firing a pistol in the city limits; W. H. Cobb, white, charged with running an automobile at night without a rear light; Arthur Beach, colored, charged with violating the bicycle ordinance. A nol pros with leave was taken in cases against Kenly Dry, Riddle Lofton, William Hanes and Charlie Haywood, all colored boys, charged with firing pistols within the city limits. Judgment was suspended in a case against W. S. Whitehead, charged with violating the automobile ordinance. A nol pros with leave was taken in a case against David McKoy, colored, charged with vagrancy.

LAUDS BRYAN'S BANQUET.

Pastor W. M. Wisdom, of New York, Decries Liquor and Immorality.

Pastor Wisdom, of New York City, who is advertised to give a free public lecture Sunday at 8 P. M. in the Grand Theatre on "The Love of God and the Fire of Hell," is a man of strong convictions, ever ready to face public ridicule rather than palliate principle. He recently lauded Mr. Bryan as a man of principle as follows:

"The whole world has reverberated with public comment concerning our Secretary of State Bryan's banquet in honor of the retiring British ambassador, Hon. James Bryce. The usual custom of serving wine was laid aside, and Mr. Bryan, true to his temperance convictions, served grape juice instead. While some have scoffed and others have considered our country insulted and disgraced, nevertheless this act will go down in history to the credit of one who in the face of world-wide ridicule, was not afraid to stand by his convictions. Would that America had more such noble statesmen at the head of her affairs. Our land would soon be free from the terrible curses due to licensed liquor and immorality. The land of liberty would cease to be an idle dream; it would become a reality."

TALK OF MR. KENLY.

Savannah Officials Think He Will be Made President of A. C. L.

The opinion continues to prevail pretty generally all over the Atlantic Coast Line system that Mr. J. R. Kenly, third vice president of the road, is most likely to be made president to succeed the late Mr. Thos. M. Emerson in the event Mr. Kenly desires the place. The following is from Thursday's Savannah Morning News:

"That J. R. Kenly, third vice president in charge of the operating department of the Atlantic Coast Line, will succeed Thomas M. Emerson as president is very likely, according to prominent transportation officials in Savannah.

"As head of the operating department Mr. Kenly is regarded as the logical man to take Mr. Emerson's place. He is perhaps closer in touch with the affairs of the Coast Line than either of the other vice presidents, and is understood to enjoy the confidence of the interests in control of the property.

"Mr. Kenly is perhaps better known in Savannah than was Mr. Emerson. He has been coming her two or three times a month for several years, and there are a large number of Savannahians who hope that he will succeed Mr. Emerson in the presidency."

CIVIL ACTIONS STARTED.

Two Suits Instituted in Superior Court Here Yesterday.

Two suits were instituted in Superior Court yesterday, but complaint was not filed in either case. One is brought by A. P. Whitehead, administrator of the estate of his son, Ivan Whitehead, against the Clyde Steamship Company. It is an action for damages for the death of young Whitehead, who lost his life a few months ago while working on a dredge down the river. The contention of the plaintiff, it is understood, will be that a Clyde Line steamer passing the dredge disturbed the pipe line on which Whitehead was at work precipitating him into the water and causing his death by drowning. The amount of damages that will be asked is not known. Herbert McClammy, Esq., appears for the plaintiff.

The other suit started yesterday is brought by Joseph Hansley and wife, colored, against Paul Caase, A. J. Marshall and Pembroke Jones. The nature of the suit is not known. K. C. Sidbury, Esq., appears for the plaintiff. There was filed for record in the Register's office yesterday a paper in which Hansley confers upon Mr. Sidbury power of attorney and gives to him the sole power to act for him in this particular case. It is set forth in the instrument that any settlement made by the plaintiff in this case cannot be binding without the approval of Mr. Sidbury.

..Theatrical..

Two Big Stars on the Way.

It is a decidedly fitting incident in the careers of Mabel and Edith Taliaferro that after each has enjoyed distinctive individual starring honors in conspicuously successful plays that they should be brought together as co-stars. It is questionable whether there are to be found two young women identified with the stage anywhere who enjoy so great a degree of popularity as the Taliaferro girls, as they have come to be affectionately known throughout the length and breadth of the land. Both have been on the stage almost since they were old enough to toddle and both have succeeded through hard work. Miss Edith Taliaferro made her debut when she was two and a half years old, appearing with the late James A. Hearne as one of the Berry children in "Shore Acres." Miss Mabel Taliaferro's first part was that of Baby Bascombe in "Blue Jeans." She was little more than two years old at the time. Since then each has played a wide variety of roles. It is in "Young Wisdom," the Rachel Crothers' play in which they are to be seen here at the Academy of Music next Friday night.

Noted Rose Stahl Coming.

Charles Klein has ever been an opportunist in his plays. He has looked about him for conditions peculiar to our times and people and then about that idea builded a story with a big heart appeal. It is such a play he has made in "Maggie Pepper," in which the Henry B. Harris Estate will present Rose Stahl at the Academy, matinee and night, one week from today. Politics and the police have made splendid subjects for the pen of Mr. Klein and there is no playwright today so capable of handling the problem of the department store girl.

At the Grand.

The Grand will make a strong appeal to the amusement lovers of Wilmington today by presenting an exceedingly clever bill; one that will please every taste. It will be a big Saturday at the cozy, handsome Grand and the theatre will, no doubt, be crowded, according to the custom of amusement-lovers, who love the Grand so dearly. A wonderful Selig special two-reel release, "The Bridge of Shadows," will lead the way. It is a highly dramatic story, filled with great human interest. It tells of an outcast, who was wrongly charged with crime and though accused, still feels the heel of the police. There is a pretty love story wrapped up in the film which will please every one. Every moment of the presentation of this costly, big Selig is fraught with intense interest. This film should be seen by all.

The Vitagraph's latest, "The Doctor's Secret," is also a topliner today. It is a dramatic masterpiece and a notable cast will appear, including such well known artists as Charles Kent, Van Dyke Brooke, Leo Delaney, Frank Mason, Norman Talmadge and Helen Costello.

There will be other delightful features to the day's show, which will provide the amusement public with a big and exceptionally brilliant week-end bill. The same old price of admission, that of 5 cents, will prevail.

Bijou Climax Today.

Still maintaining its great bills, featured by special and expensive releases, the popular Bijou will climax the present week with a brilliant offering. Today's show will be one of the greatest the favorite theatre has ever presented and, of course, giant sized week-end audiences will be on hand to witness the performances. The star film of today's superb programme will be the American "The Ghost of the Hacienda." It is a special two part, or two-reel film and one of the biggest sensations ever turned out in the way of a photodrama. It is the story of Americans who purchase a hacienda in Mexico and the tradition that follows in the place in the way of ghosts. It is a weird, mysterious story, just such as devotees of the movies love so dearly. However, there are plenty of thrills, the attack on the Mexican desperadoes on the hacienda being especially graphic and thrilling. It is one of the most stupendous of all special releases.

There is another great star on today's bill in "The Faithful Taxicab," being the tale presented in absurd melodramatic style, which will furnish a barrel of screams of laughter and which is one of the biggest novelties of the day. It is a howl for joy.

The price of the Bijou will remain the same, 5 cents, and the theatre is the home of solid comfort, being bright and cozy these days.

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: L. W. Moore and wife and William Struthers, Jr., and wife, to Rev. Andrew J. Howell and wife, for $100 and other considerations, lot on south side of Market street, 88 feet west of 20th, 44x113 feet in size; Julia N. Parsley and Lionel H. Love and wife, of Pacific Grove, Cal., to Walter L. Parsley, for $1,333.33, their two-thirds interest in property on west side of Fourth street, 42 feet from Second, same being lots 1, 2 and 3 in block 345, in northern part of the city; Rev. Andrew J. Howell and wife to William Struthers, Jr., and L. W. Moore, for $100 and other considerations, lot on west side of Ninth street, 99 feet south of Dock, 33x102 feet in size.

Will be Here Monday.

Detailed by Surgeon General Rupert Blue, of the United States Public Health Service, to make an investigation of the Wilmington public water supply and advise with the city officials as to what steps should be taken to improve the quality of the water, Prof. E. C. Phelps, of the United States Hygienic Laboratory, will arrive here Monday to begin his work. He is to make a thorough investigation and exhaustive study of the local situation and then make report to the city officials of his conclusions with especial reference to the question of obtaining the water supply from deep wells, as proposed. Upon his arrival here Prof. Phelps will report to Mayor Moore.

Residence Entered.

The residence of Mrs. Catherine G. Harriss at Carolina Heights was entered late Thursday afternoon and the intruder stole a cooked turkey and two razors. Nothing else has been missed. Entrance was effected by using an axe on a window. The burglary was reported to Justice Harriss and officers are at work on the case. The officers have a clue and they believe they will be able to capture the guilty person.

Grievous Error Corrected.

Through the unfortunate loss in the composing room of two lines in the opening paragraph of the funeral of Mr. Thos. M. Emerson in yesterday's Star, the article read that the the services were "conducted by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church," when it should have read "conducted by Rev. Wm. E. Cox, rector of St. John's, assisted by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton," etc.

DEATH OF MR. R. G. DAVIS.

Passed Away This Morning at 12:30 O'clock at Union Station.

Many friends in the city will be deeply grieved and pained to learn of the death of Mr. R. G. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Davis, which occurred this morning at 12:30 o'clock as he was being removed from the Seaboard train which had just come in from the West. Mr. Davis had been in bad health for some time and Thursday afternoon of last week went to Rockingham in this State for the purpose of recuperating.

He was taken seriously ill and his parents were called to his bedside Tuesday night. He rallied Thursday afternoon and was thought to be much better. Thursday night, however, he took a turn for the worse and it was deemed best to bring him home last night. His mother and father together with a physician accompanied him.

The remains were taken to the home of his parents at No. 315 North Seventh street. Surviving him besides his father and mother are one sister, Miss Minnie C. Davis, and two brothers, Messrs. Herbert C. and Thomas E. Davis, Jr. They will have the tender sympathy of a host of friends in their sad bereavement.

Had he lived until next January, he would have been 25 years of age. Before his last illness he was employed in the general offices of the Atlantic Coast Line here. He was a young man of many splendid traits of character. He was a member of Grace Methodist church and took an active interest in church work. He had a large circle of friends and was highly regarded by all who knew him.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

WASHINGTON AS LAD DID PERFECT WORK.

Surveying Done in 1751 Stands Test of Modern Instruments.

Washington, November 28.—George Washington's surveying, done in 1751 when, as a lad of 19, he ran lines with chain and compass through the wilderness of the Virginia hills for Lord Fairfax, has been checked up by government surveyors who have just made their report and who found the work of the immortal patriot perfect.

Washington, running his lines with primitive instruments and bon fires on hill tops, left monuments and boundaries to which technically educated surveyors using high-power transits and all the refined and accurate methods have been able to find no variation.

From the top of Middle Mountain in the Massanutten Range, the old Fairfax line may be distinguished without the use of instruments and be followed by boundary fences dating from the earliest days and by blocks of timber which come up for the county lines and stand out like squares upon a checker board. Down across the valley off the South Fork of the Shenandoah as far as the eye can distinguish the line shows plainly.

Washington's survey blazes cut into the trunks of trees and long grown over have been re-discovered and all are several feet higher from the ground than those woodsmen of today would make. Some authorities contend Washington made them from the saddle with a long-handled axe.

The government has been re-tracing the old lines because it is buying land through which they run for the North Appalachian reserve.

Preparing for Winter Cruise.

The revenue cutter Seminole which has been on the marine railway for the last several days for the purpose of being scraped and re-painted, will be taken off today. Other minor repairs were also made. This is the annual Winter cleaning for the cutter and is in preparation for her Winter cruise. The vessel has a tonnage of about 3,2000 and is one of the largest boats that the marine railway gets for re-painting and repairing. Until the Wilmington marine railway opened some months ago it was necessary to take large boats like the Seminole to other ports to be repaired.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Hearings here in the anti-trust suit against the American Telephone and Telegraph Company were concluded today. The hearings will be resumed in Baltimore, Md., Tuesday.

IMPOSING LEGAL ARRAY.

In Case of Dr. Craig Accused of Murdering Dr. Knabe.

Shelbyville, Ill., Nov. 28.—Imposing legal forces today engaged in the preliminary skirmish of the trial of Dr. William B. Craig, of Indianapolis, for the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe. Thirty-one veniremen were examined before adjournment tonight but twelve jurymen satisfactory to both sides had not been obtained.

The line of questioning appeared to indicate that the State would endeavor to build the structure of its case on a foundation of compromising circumstances. There was every indication that the accused veterinary and his lawyers would support strongly the police theory of suicide.

Significance was attached by some to this question asked by counsel for the defense: "Would you have any faith in evidence obtained through spiritualism?"

The invariable answer was: "No."

Dr. Craig remained at liberty tonight under the $15,000 bond which he furnished when he was arrested.

Throughout a tiresome day he sat undisturbed beside his 14-year-old daughter demonstrating no more interest than the most casual spectator.

Brigade Basketball.

A large number of spectators witnessed the basketball games at the Boys' Brigade last night. There were two contests and both were interesting. The first game was between the Cardinals and Company B and was won by the former by a score of 25 to 24. In the second game the Giants won from the Eagles 23 to 21. As a result of last night's games the Cardinals and Company B tie for first place; the Giants take second place and the Eagles bring up the rear.

SMALL ADVANCE IN COTTON

After Showing Considerable Firmness During Earlier Trading Market Broke 10 Points.

New York, Nov. 28.—After showing considerable firmness during today's earlier trading, the cotton market broke about 10 points under realizing or scattering liquidation and closed easy at a net advance of 1 to 8 points.

Rumors that the investigations of one of the Southern statistical bureaus pointed to ginning returns aggregating about 12,100,000 bales up to the first of December seemed to be largely responsible for the late reaction, while in the absence of general business, prices seemed sensitive to comparatively small orders, either way.

The market opened steady at a decline of one point to an advance of one point, which was about in line with Liverpool. There were December notices circulating against 17,000 bales, but there seemed to be no December liquidation of consequence, and the market ruled generally steady during the morning.

A private cable from Liverpool claiming that the International Spinners' Federation had decided not to recommend organized part time and a bullish view of the week-end figures helped the advance which carried active months about 12 to 18 points net higher during the early afternoon.

There was very little cotton for sale until the market worked above 12.05 for March, when offerings became a little heavier, with prices easing off rather sharply during the last half hour. Cables received here from trade sources said that the members of the Liverpool cotton exchange estimated the crop at 14,287,000 bales.

Private cables attributed the steady tone of the Liverpool market to smaller Southern offerings, and said the spinners were fixing prices on their end of November requirement.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 13.40; middling gulf 13.65; no sales.

WEEKLY COTTON STATEMENT

Market Has Shown Nervousness and Irregularity During Past Week. Increasing Estimates.

New York, Nov. 28.—The cotton market has shown more nervousness and irregularity during the past week than any definite trend. There has been considerable talk of increased crop estimates and of unfavorable trade advices but generally speaking the selling has not been aggressive, while offerings have been fairly well absorbed on declines, either through covering of shorts or trade buying.

The bearish view of the last ginning report seemed to be strengthened, in some measure, by a crop estimate of 14,800,000 bales minimum by a Memphis authority, but the individual estimates by members of Southern cotton exchanges published during the week have shown a continued wide difference of opinion ranging in some cases from 13,500,000 bales to 15,300,000 bales, and averaging around 14,250,000 bales. The average crop expectation of Liverpool cotton exchange members, according to private cables received here today is 14,287,000 bales, and it consequently appears that crop sentiment is still more or less confused. Selling on the larger estimates and the talk of a less favorable trade outlook, has doubtless been checked by the reiteration of smaller crop views encouraged by private reports claiming that comparatively little cotton remains in the field to be picked and ginned, and continued predictions of a small estimate from the Department of Agriculture on December 12th. On the other hand, the trade buying is considered by many to have been chiefly in the way of fixing prices on old business, and talk of full ginning returns for the last half of November, combined with the free movement of the Indian crop, and a less active export movement, has apparently discouraged any general buying for long account.

Trading has been comparatively quiet and the opinion was expressed today that the scattering interest had been pretty well evened up pending fresh developments in the spot situation or a more conclusive line on the size of the crop. Recent rumors that Lancashire spinners contemplated short time have been followed by private cables claiming that the International Spinners' Federation had decided not to recommend any organized movement in that direction, but continental trade advices have shown no change, and there were reports here yesterday that a slackening domestic demand for goods at first hand had resulted in a slightly easier market for print cloths.

DUN'S REVIEW.

Lessened Activity in Industrial Channels Reflect Uncertainty.

New York, Nov. 28.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:

"Lessened activity in industrial channels reflects prevailing uncetainty regarding the future. The distribution of merchandise for immediate requirements continues large, but retrenchment rather than expansion characterizes the situation. Caution in entering upon forward commitments is general and new enterprises are limited, while economy is practiced in numerous quarters. Labor is not so well employed and more machinery is idle in iron and steel, the leading mills now running considerably below their full capacity.

Curtailment of operations results mainly from the restricted buying on the part of the transporting companies which experience difficulty in obtaining needed funds for equipment requirements. The opening of the Eastern freight rate inquiry and the beginning of the currency debate in the Senate attracted attention.

"Failures this week numbered 356 in the United States against 220 last year, and 41 in Canada compared with 41 a year ago."

WORLD'S VISIBLE SUPPLY.

Secretary Hester's Statement Shows Increase This Year.

New Orleans, Nov. 28.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton issued today shows the total visible to be 5,323,940 against 5,072,502 last week and 5,586,516 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 4,075,940 against 3,890,502 last week and 4,667,517 last year; and of all other kinds including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 1,248,000 against 1,182,000 last week and 919,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and Continental Europe 2,772,000 against 3,011,000 last year; in Egypt 341,000 against 279,000 last year; in India 448,000 against 313,000 last year, and in the United States 1,763,000 against 1,984,000 last year.

A Flurry in Call Money Which Rose to 10 Per Cent Curbed All Active Speculation in Stocks.

New York, Nov. 28.—A flurry in call money which rose to 10 per cent, effectively curbed any inclination toward active speculation in stocks today. Outside business was small. Operators found it almost impossible to move the list in either direction. The drift of prices was downward and a few of the newer industrials fell back 1 to 2 points, but among the leading stocks changes were slight.

It was the last loaning day of the month and money rates were affected by preparations for December 1st payments. Another influence was continuance of the outward movement of currency. The amount of gold sent to Canada on the present movement was brought up to $14,100,000 by shipments of $3,400,000 today. Time money rates were not affected by these conditions and the outlook was for a return of easy rates for call funds.

Of the leading stocks, Amalgamated was under heaviest pressure. Speculative selling of this stock was based on cessation of demand for the metal, the recent cut in prices having produced only a temporary buying movement.

Bullish operations in Union Pacific based on the favorable October report were successful for a time, but after the price had been bid up a point it eased off again. United States Realty was affected by the failure of a New York real estate concern and slumped 6 points. Can common and preferred also was weak, but Mexican Petroleum preferred gained eight points.

Bonds showed an easier tendency. Total sales, par value, $1,125,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total stocks sales 102,100 shares including Lehigh Valley 500; Southern Railway 700; U. S. Steel 22,600.

were just as anxious to tell what they knew. Many of the letters contained accusations against the packers of Chicago, and charged them with responsibility of cold storage prices. Others blamed the middleman.

The work of the department's agents has progressed just far enough for the attorney general to be desirious of more details. No expenses will be spared from the funds available to get to the bottom of the combination if there is one.

SPEECHES ON HOME RULE IN IRELAND.

Unionist Party Carry War Into Enemy's Territory.

Dublin, Nov. 28.—The Unionist party carried the war into the enemy's territory today when Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition in the House of Commons; Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Irish Unionists, and other prominent men arrived to deliver a series of speeches on home rule in the Irish capital.

During a speech in the afternoon before the Unionist association, Mr. Law said Premier Asquith's speech yesterday at Leeds seemed to him a complete acceptance of the orders of John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, for "Full steam ahead," and if that is so the difficulties of the Unionist party were gone.

Suffragettes attempted to reach Mr. Law as he was driving to the residence of Lord Iveagh and they bombarded him with pamphlets. Mrs. Sheehy Sheffington and Mrs. Connery, the leaders of the suffragettes in Dublin, were arrested, charged with obstructing the police.

When arraigned later Mrs. Sheffington was sentenced to seven days imprisonment and at once declared a "hunger strike."

Mr. Bonar Law addressed an immense meeting tonight in the theatre Royal and also an overflow meeting. He argued that the attitude of Ulster alone justified the demand for an appeal to the country. He challenged the government if they believed they had moral right behind them to arrest Sir Edward Carson and suppress the armed movement in Ulster.

The streets tonight were crowded. Students marched in procession and smashed windows in tram cars and buildings. Shots were fired and one woman was wounded. The police were busy preventing affrays.

PROSPECTS FOR AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT

Of the Strike at General Electric Co.'s Plant.

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Prospects for an amicable settlement of the strike at the General Electric Company's plant are brighter tonight than at any time since the 14,000 employes walked out Tuesday. After a five hours' conference, between company officials, stricekrs, representatives and Mayor George B. Lunn announcement was made that the "outlook is favorable."

Another conference will be held tomorrow morning.

Details of what passed at today's meeting lack official confirmation, but it is currently reported that the company officials have agreed tentatively to reinstate all the strikers, conditionally and to resume operations Monday on part time. If this is true, Frank D. Dujay and Miss Mabel Leslie, whose discharge caused the strike, will go back to their places.

The company paid out approximately $250,000 in wages this afternoon. The strikers, led by nearly 2,000 women companions, marched to the plant and received their pay envelopes for the previous week's work.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT.

63-Year-Old Man Gets Five Year Term.

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 28.—Wesley H. Terry, former mayor of Floyd, Va., 63 years old, was indicted this afternoon at Floyd court house on a charge of attempted criminal assault on the daughter of a court official and a few minutes later pleaded guilty to the indictment and sentenced to five years in the State penitentiary.

It was further ordered by the court that the prisoner be confined in the Roanoke county jail at Salem, Va., until removed to the State prison. The alleged attempt was committed October 30th, and the accused man was rushed to Roanoke for safe keeping, so bitter was the feeling in the community against him.

BACK TO OLD TRICKS.

Militants in London Follow Old Tactics.

London, Nov. 28.—Militant suffragettes are returning to their old tactics. One of them fastened herself to a chair in Caxton hall tonight with chain and padlock, from which point of vantage she shrieked "Votes for women," The Right Hon. Joseph Albert Pease, M. P., for the Rotherham division, of York, had to stop his speech for severad minutes while the stewards endeavored to remove the suffragette. They had to smash the chair before this could be done.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 28.—Governor Ammons today had received no reply from either the Colorado coal operators or their striking employes to a proposition for arbitration submitted last night. The Governor announced that without waiting further he would put into effect enforcement of the law and order in the strike zone.

LEARN WHEREABOUTS OF MISSING MAN.

Letter Received From New York Park Commissioner.

New York, Nov. 28.—Charles B. Stover, New York's missing park commissioner, was in Cincinnati last Monday. This became known today with the appointment by Mayor Kline of Louis F. Laroche as Commissioner Stover's successor. Mr. Laroche's first act was to make public the following letter received from Commissioner Stover, dated Cincinnati, November 24th.

"My Dear Friend Laroche:

"I have reached Cincinnati in my travels and write you this Monday night, November 24th, to let you know that when this letter reaches you, my resignation will be in the hands of Mayor Kline. I hope he will appoint you as my successor, and I should therefore, advise you that you see him immediately.

"Now let there be no further concern about me. In my day I have traveled not a little and am fully competent to make my way anywhere around this world in safety. I repeat, therefore, let there be no worry over my travels. Hoping you will succeed me, I remain, with best wishes to you and to all,

"Sincerely,

"CHARLES B. STOVER."

The letter was in Commissioner Stover's own handwriting and the envelope was postmarked Cincinnati. Mr. Stover's resignation was received by Mayor Kline yesterday.

SAFE BLOWN OPEN.

Mt. Holly Station of P. & N. Railway Robbed of Cash.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 28.—Some time between midnight and daybreak this morning the safe in Mount Holly this morning the safe in the Piedmont & Northern station at Mount Holly was blown open and $25 in cash and $100 in checks taken. High explosives, probably nitro-glycerine, was used and the safe was badly battered up. It was apparently the work of experts. As yet no arrests have been made and there is no clue as to the guilty party or parties. The Mount Holly station closes after the last passenger car passes about 11:30 o'clock.

CRIMINAL ESCAPED.

Threw Lime in Officers' Eyes and Disappeared.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 28.—John Johnson, negro, under sentence to electrocution for criminal assault upon a white woman in Halifax county, escaped from the county jail at Houston this afternoon. The sheriff went to the negro's cell with his supper, when Johnson threw lime into the officer's face, completely blinding him, and the negro disappeared before an alarm could be given.

CONFERS WITH EVERS.

Joe Tinker Prefers to Play in Chicago Next Season.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Joe Tinker, deposed manager of the Cincinnati baseball team, called on Manager Evers, of the Chicago Nationals today, and after a conference said he knew of no place where he would rather play than in Chicago. No terms were discussed and until President Murphy, of the Chicago club, returns from Europe no negotiations can be started regarding the transfer of Tinker.

HUNTING FOR MAN.

Who Killed Another Over an Account Due Him.

Bristol, Va., Nov. 28.—A special to the Herald-Courier from Gate City, Va., says that a posse is in search of James Stanley, 40 years old, who last night shot and instantly killed William Gilliam, aged 42. It seems that Gilliam went to Stanley and demanded payment of a small debt. Stanley refused and the shooting followed a quarrel.

ABSTACLES IN WAY OF BILL

lution will be presented after the bill has been completed.

Defeat Proposal.

The Democratic conference tonight defeated a proposal to broaden the redemption features of the new currency bill so that the proposed treasury notes would be redeemable at the United States treasury in "lawful money." The committee had recommended that the final redemption be limited strictly to gold and after a lengthy debate tonight this position was upheld by the conference. The bill as now agreed to permits a note to be redeemable in either gold or "lawful money" at the regional banks, but in gold only at the treasury.

A change was agreed to in the form of the Owen bill which would make the new treasury notes acceptable for the payment of custom duties.

Rapid progress was made on the bill tonight and Democratic Senators reiterated their predictions that the conference would complete its work by tomorrow night.

CAMERA MEN ARE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

When They Took Flash Light Pictures of President Wilson.

New York, Nov. 28.—President Wilson and his party, who left Washington today for this city, arrived shortly before 7 o'clock tonight. The President's visit here is in response to the invitation to attend the Army-Navy football game at the Polo Grounds tomorrow. He plans to start to Washington late tomorrow night.

In the President's party were Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, the bridal couple, who will sail tomorrow morning for Europe; Secretary of Navy Daniels, Secretary of Treasury McAdoo, Miss Eleanor Wilson, Miss Marjorie Brown, Secretary Joseph Tumulty and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N.

As the party passed through the railroad terminal photographers dared prior threats of arrest and took flashlight pictures. Secret service men took the camera men in custody.

President Wilson went to the home of a friend, Col. E. M. House, where he will be a guest while here. Tonight he attended the theatre. Mr. and Mrs. Sayre eluded newspaper reporters at the terminal by leaving through a gate other than that used by the President. They went to an uptown hotel.

President Wilson was generally recognized as he reached the theatre tonight and went to the box reserved for him which was decorated with flags and bunting. There was applause as he appeared and the audience cheered him as he stood in his box. He did not seat himself until the orchestra had finished playing "The Star Spangled Banner," which it struck up in the midst of the demonstration.

New Year's Resolutions

are hard to keep! We start them with a bang—and then we gradually slow down.

Ever notice, too, how the year gets well on before we even try to apply them? So busy! So occupied with the season's demands upon our time, etc.

What is the Thing to Do?

Take time by the forelock! Every man and every woman knows the importance of carrying a savings account, and if you will simply come in and start the fund now, without waiting for the New Year, there will then be no resolution!

and Yet—

You will be more comfortable! You will spend less, for jingling money in the pocket is a temptation to waste!

Four Per Cent.

is paid here. Compounded every ninety days—and it counts fast.

Forget the Resolutions—

Start ahead of them!

The Independent Woman

The woman of today knows more about business than her Mother did and if the agitation for Women's Rights did nothing more than it has already accomplished, it would have been a good thing. It has made women think, made them more dependable in business and made them more self-reliant.

Most women at the head of households now pay all bills by check. They have learned that it is the business-like way to handle money. We have made special provision to care for our women depositors and both Bank Book and Check Books of proper size for the hand bag have been provided. Your account will be welcome.
